DAILY BULLETIN FOR WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2019

ANNOUNCEMENTS

After school tutoring in the cafeteria (takes place Tues – Thurs)

It's Homecoming and we are feeling the spirit. Come on out today at lunch and play giant Jenga to win points for your class. And if you're dressed up, don't forget to check in at the table by the activities office to earn your class points, plus everyone who checks in at least 3 times this week gets entered in a drawing to pie a teacher at the rally. Tomorrow's theme is ZooHill. We want to see animals, animal print, and zoo keepers. Just a friendly reminder that the dress code is still in effect on dress up days.

Are you ready to dance? Be sure to get your ticket for the Neon Nights Dance tonight at 6 in the cafeteria. Wear your wacky wear or throw on some white or neon to be ready to glow. Tickets are available in the finance office for $2 if you have your ASB sticker, $4 without.

If you bought senior package B or class package 2, make sure you pick up your homecoming shirts at lunch today outside the Activities Office. If you want to buy one of the limited edition shirts, they $10 with ASB sticker, $12 without while supplies last.

Sophomores and Juniors, the PSAT will be Wednesday, October 16th! If you want to sign up, the cost will be $17 that can be paid in finance. For more information, come by the counseling office.

It's that time again: time to save lives. Our first Blood Drive of the year will take place on October 25th. If you are at least 16 years old and want to help save lives, become a blood donor and give the gift of life. Our Blood Ambassadors will be visiting classrooms this week to hand out the paperwork and answer questions. See Ms. Miller in I-19 for more information.

Today is the first round of voting for homecoming king and queen. Be sure to look for the table at lunch and vote. Top 4 finalists for king and queen will be posted on Instagram today at 2:30!
