ANNOUNCEMENTS

We had lots of sports action this weekend and we have a lot of athletes to congratulate. Both varsity soccer teams played in the South Tournament this past weekend and our boys were 2nd and our girls 3rd. Great start to what will surely be a great soccer season. JV boys soccer and frosh-soph boy basketball both had some great wins this weekend and we had a ton of wrestlers in action too. Congrats to the Leila Garrido, Ariana Juarez, Myls Medrano, and Isabella Garcia for winning their weight class, and congratulations to our drama department for another successful production.

The holiday season is here and this week you have 2 opportunities to check out a holiday concert. The instrumental music program will have a concert tomorrow night and the choral program will have theirs on Thursday. Be sure to come check them out and support your fellow classmates.

Speaking of the holidays, we see lots of you out there enjoying the Merry Monday PJ Day. Be sure to tag your pictures with hashtag spirit fhs. Tomorrow we want to see those holiday socks and remember that all week we will be collecting new unwrapped toys as well as socks, gloves, scarves, beanies, and other cold weather items in E-12. Check the Happy Holidays paper posted in your classrooms for more details on the rest of the week.

Freshmen and sophomores, now that we have the locker room available, all PE classes will get to start dressing out next semester. To help make sure you are ready, we are running a special on PE clothes in the Finance Office. You can pick up a set with shirt and shorts for $20 if you have your ASB sticker, $30 without BUT for this week only, we are have a special deal which included an FHS sweatshirt. $40 will get you a sweatshirt, shorts, and tshirt if you

Attention Juniors: If you have a 3.8 GPA and above you QUALIFY to apply to the Ford Dimension and Dream Builders Student Leadership Program. If you are interested in learning more about the program prior to applying, there is an informational tonight at 7:30pm at the district office, 5801 Sundale Ave. If you have any questions, stop in and see Ms. Pochigian in the counseling center.

If you are in need of a jacket or a coat, stop by the quad this Friday during lunch. Your amazing Foothill Staff have donated several jackets/coats to help keep you warm.

If you are currently paying off a class package, remember that they need to be paid off by December 16th which is only a week away. Stop by the finance office today to see what you have left to pay.

SPORTS

Tonight our boys basketball teams will have their first home game of the season. FHS basketball home games will take place at North in their second gym. Come on out and start the season off right as they host Woodlake.
