DAILY BULLETIN FOR WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17, 2019

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Students, during finals no snack or dinner will be served. Breakfast and lunch will still be offered.

Today is your last chance of the semester to get some tutoring help and you have two places you can do it. Regular tutoring will take place in the computer lab as normal and we also have a Cocoa and Cram session happening in E6 with your Link Crew and ASB teams. Stop by E6 after school to help you prep for your final exams and get some goodies to fuel your tank.

Freshmen and sophomores, you have only a few days left to get in on the PE clothes special. Through this week, you can get a PE set with a t-shirt and shorts for just $20 with ASB, $30 without. You can also upgrade that set and add an FHS hoodie. For just $40 with ASB and $50 without, you can get an FHS hoodie, PE t-shirt, and PE shorts and save some money. Stop by the finance office today for more information or to get your set.

If you are someone who has not yet paid off your class package, make sure you get your last payment in this week. If you are not sure what you still owe, stop by the finance office and find out. Remember that the finance office takes cash, check, and credit and debit cards.

If you are a student who is not getting progress reports and other school mailers at home, we may have the wrong address for you. Stop by the front office to update your address if you're not getting school mail at home.

SENIORS

Seniors, it's that time of the year where early college acceptances are coming in. Be sure to let your counselor know when you have received one as we want to celebrate you like we will your senior class president now. Congratulations to Alondra Orozco Romero for her early acceptance and full ride offer to the prestigious Columbia University. We know you are going to do great things.
