DAILY BULLETIN FOR MONDAY, DECEMBER 02, 2019

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parent Project (Spanish Class) 5pm – 9pm.

Congratulations once again to our boys cross country team for placing third in valley and making it to the state meet over the break. Congratulations also to Francis Johnson for running the fastest time of his high school career at the biggest meet of the year. We are proud of all of our fall athletes and how well their seasons went and we are excited about moving into all of our winter sports now including basketball, soccer, and wrestling.

A reminder that if you are a current sophomore or junior and want to be in an ROC program next year, the application is open and you need to get that filled out soon in order to apply for your spot. Stop by the counseling office for help or more information.

A reminder to all students who are making payments on class packages, the deadline to finish paying off your package is December 16th so be sure to stop by the finance office before school, at lunch, or after school to make a payment or find out what your payoff amount is.
