BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Sojourner Truth was an African-American abolitionist and women's rights activist, often known for her "Ain't I A Woman" speech. Born into slavery as Isabella Baumfree in eastern New York, she escaped to freedom with her infant daughter Sophia in 1826 stating that she "did not run off, for I thought that wicked, but I walked off, believing that to be all right." She, however, had to leave her older children behind. New York abolished slavery in 1827, but she found that her son Peter, aged 5, had been sold illegally to an owner in Alabama. With help of a couple she worked for, Isabella Baumfree took the issue to court and in 1828 won her son back, becoming one of the first black women to go to court against a white man and win. On June 1, 1843 she changed her name to Sojourner Truth after joining the Methodist church, stating that she heard the spirit of God telling her to preach the truth.

NATIONAL FFA WEEK

It's day two of FFA week and the Ag fact of the day is: One pound of wool can make 10 miles of yarn and there are 450 feet of wool yarn in a baseball. Western Wednesday is upon us and we'd love to see you at lunch for Pie an Officer! You will have the chance to smear a bit of whipped cream in the face of one of our officers. Also, don't forget to check in at the BLUE and GOLD booth to get a raffle ticket, treats, and earn points for your team! Team BLUE is in the lead with 33 points. The Kiss the Pig contest has two leaders right now: Mr. Clark and Mrs. Costa. We will see you at lunch so you can pie an officer and make your donations at lunch to see which teacher will kiss the pig Friday.
