Hey Trojans, make sure that you are checking your school emails on a regular basis for all things Yearbook related. This week Yearbook is having nominations for Staff Superlatives. Nominate teachers and staff that you think is most spirited, most likely to forget your name, and many more. Deadline to submit nominations is this Friday at 5pm.

Juniors and Seniors interested in joining Academic Decathlon, there will be an interest meeting Wednesday at lunch in Room 911. If you are unable to attend, please see Ms. Garcia in room 909.

Sophomores and Juniors, the PSAT is Wednesday, October 13, 2021. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to prepare for the SAT you take during senior year. Many universities have TEMPORARILY stopped requiring SAT scores for admission, but some still require it and those who don't are using those scores for placement after admittance or for scholarships/grants. You still have time to go by the finance and pay $5.00 to sign up.

Are you looking to make friends, make connections, make a difference?! Well what better way than through volunteer work? Volunteer work is a well-proven way to improve your resume and make your job applications unique. In addition, you could even earn school credits through volunteer work. The parent center is needing reliable, dependable, and energetic students who are ready to make a difference. If you're interested, ask for Ms. Daisy in the Career/Parent center next to the library for more information.
