Seniors, this is a reminder that this Friday is the deadline to take your senior pictures at InMotionPro for the yearbook.

It is fair time once again and many of our fellow Trojans are showing animals as part of the Foothill FFA program. Stop by and check out their animals any day the fair is open and look for the FHS poster to sign in and earn points for honoring our fellow Trojans.

Do you have tickets or tokens to turn in? Be sure to head to the table by the finance office at lunch today to get yours turned in. This Friday will be your first chance to get things for your points and we have a special treat for all who have turned in a token, so be sure to get yours in today.

Trojans, do you like to write? Do you want a creatively free place to work on writing and share ideas with other writers? If so, you're in luck. Mr. Melgar and Mr. Willis are starting a creative writing club on campus. If you're interested, go see Mr. Melgar in room 807 during lunch or after school.
