TROJANS

The Winter Formal will take place on January 21st and tickets will go on sale next week. You must have a current school ID to purchase a ticket so make sure you stop by the textbook room at lunch, after school, or before school if you need to order an ID. And watch Instagram and listen to the announcements for upcoming information.

Attention Junior students...Are you interested in an exciting and great leadership program where you can make a difference in your community, strengthen your leadership skills, and connect with other students in our community? Then the Ford Dimension may be for you. To qualify you must have a 3.7 GPA, be involved in school or extracurricular activities, and enrolled in AP/Honor classes. There is a mandatory informational night on Monday, 12/5/2022. Please drop by the counseling office to see Ms. Ward for more information and to attend.

CLUBS

Project Lit meeting Wednesday, November 30th at lunch in the library.

Game club will be meeting on Friday in room I-10 and D&D will take place on Thursday after school in I-10 and that students should still come for a one-shot if the DM is not there.

Anime Club will be meeting on Friday, 12/2, in room 816.

The astronomy club is hosting a night with the stars this week. Come learn the constellations and look at the planets closer than you have ever before this Friday night from 6:30-7:30. Free for everyone and you do not have to be a member of the astronomy club to come and check out the stars with us.

SPORTS

Softball starts on December 5th and will go 3 days a week Monday/Wednesday/Friday. Student interested must have a completed physical turned in to the athletics office. If you have not yet completed your sports physical, you can do a free walk-in at Priority Urgent Care you just need a parent or guardian present.
