Are you ready to get into the holiday spirit? Tonight is the instrumental music department's Christmas Concert featuring orchestra, beginning band, jazz band, mariachi, and concert band. The concert is free with doors opening at 6pm for a 6:30 concert. Not only will this be a good way to start the holiday season, all students and staff at the concert can check in and earn points for attending the concert tonight so come on out and support the Trojans.

Tickets are now on sale for the Winter Formal. Today is your last chance to pick up a ticket for $50 and the price goes up to $55 tomorrow. Students must have a current school ID and turn in a completed dance agreement to the Dean's Office before purchasing a ticket. If you need a dance agreement form, see the finance office and pick one up. This event will sell out so be sure to get your ticket while they last!

Also on sale this week, and only until Thursday, are senior hoodies. If you are a senior who did not purchase a class package, you can order your senior hoodie this week at the finance office for $40 but you must place your order by Thursday.

And a quick reminder for students who have not finished paying off their class or senior package, your package needs to be paid off by the 15th. The finance office is open before school, at lunch, and after school. Please note, the card machines in the district have been going offline quite a bit so right now the finance office can only take cash or check.

Trojans! On Thursday, December 8th, your counselors will be out during lunch by the Activities office. Christmas Trivia will be our theme, so brush up on your Christmas movie trivia and come by to spin the wheel!
