BULLETIN

TROJANS

Trojans, today at lunch, stop by the Trojans Advocacy Center at the positivity booth and send a little note of encouragement to a student or staff member and spread some kindness. It's the first Friday in April, let's make it a kind one.

Also happening at lunch today is your last chance to sign up to be a part of your campus leaders. ASB is the place for your student voice to be heard and to help make things happen on campus. Apply to be a class officer or campus commissioner today.

Trojans! It is time for our 3rd and final blood drive of the year. Did you know the yellow ducky is a symbol of blood and organ donor awareness? Not only will you get a shirt, a pizza, earn community service hours, AND save 3 lives, but you will also get a Lucky Ducky grab bag as a token of our gratitude for being a blood donor. A few lucky bags will have Starbucks gift cards in them. See a blood ambassador or Ms. Miller for more information and get those forms turned in.

The results are in from the 4th annual virtual art show! Best in show student goes to Irene Serratos for her piece "Yes, And?" People's choice award student goes to Bryan Venegas for his piece "Messi". In the staff category best in show goes to Mrs. Jones from the English department for her piece "Italy 2020" and Mr. Fuentes from the social studies department once again clinches the people's choice award for his piece "f.h.s." Congratulations to our winners and thank you for all who participated!
